

SOS CHILDREN'S VILLAGES

Rising Through the Ranks: Mirriam Katuku Kyalo's Remarkable Journey of Growth at SOS Children's Villages

Mirriam Katuku Kyalo, a reliever and administrator at SOS Children's Villages in Nairobi, embodies dedication and a genuine passion for supporting vulnerable children and youth. Her journey within the organization has been filled with growth, learning, and a deep sense of purpose.

Mirriam's role as a reliever and administrator involves various responsibilities, including assisting with administrative tasks and guiding visitors through the SOS Children's Villages in Nairobi. She takes pride in ensuring visitors have a meaningful and informative experience while upholding the organization's values.

With a degree in Human Resource Management from Karatina University, Mirriam's educational background aligns well with her responsibilities at SOS Children's Villages. Her journey with the organization began as an intern when she came across a job advertisement for an internship position in the Human Resources Department. This opportunity provided her with valuable hands-on experience in human resource management and administrative work, contributing to her professional growth and expertise.

Mirriam acknowledges the invaluable guidance she has received from seasoned professionals at SOS Children's Villages in Kenya. Working alongside individuals with years of experience and skills has allowed her to expand her knowledge and hone her abilities in various areas. She deeply appreciates the supportive and nurturing environment within the organization, which fosters continuous learning and professional development.

One of the aspects that attracted Mirriam to SOS Children's Villages in Kenya is the organization's mission statement, which encompasses a compelling vision, mission, and values. Being part of an organization committed to improving the lives of vulnerable children and young people resonates deeply with her desire to impact society positively.

Motivated by her passion for helping those in need, Mirriam consciously chose to apply to SOS Children's Villages in Kenya. She saw an opportunity to contribute her skills and compassion towards providing support and care to vulnerable children and youth. For Mirriam, the work she does at SOS Children's Villages is not just a job but a fulfilling purpose that drives her every day.

Mirriam Katuku Kyalo's journey at SOS Children's Villages exemplifies the power of compassion, education, and professional growth in making a difference in the lives of vulnerable children and youth. Her dedication and commitment inspire us all to join hands in creating a brighter future for those who need it most.

Ends